The Anti-Racist Study Group: The Anti-Racist Study Group continues on Mondays, by Zoom. We invite anyone to join us who wants to explore the issues of race and caste in our country, issues that will not go away or improve unless we face them together. We are reading Ibram X. Kendi's New York Times bestseller, How To Be an Antiracist, published in 2019. This is a memoir, in which Kendi weaves together the story of his own awakening to antiracism with ethics, history, law, and science, "bringing it all together in a cogent, accessible form." (<https://www.ibramxkendi.com/how-to-be-an-antiracist>). Please contact Cat Greenstreet (catgreenstreet@gmail.com) or Pastor Thom if you're interested.

Our Daily Bread: Copies of the July through September edition of Our Daily Bread are available at the back of the Sanctuary. Please take one!

Meals on Wheels: At this time our Meals on Wheels program is serving approximately 30 people a hot meal and a sandwich, three times a week. Please consider volunteering to assist with this valued service to our community - your assistance will be appreciated. If you would like to know more please contact John: 677- 4235; mealsonwheels@lyallmemorial.org

Celebration Bags for Food Pantries: The congregation continues to be generous to the children of our area by providing birthday bags that include cake mix, frosting, and sprinkles. A friend of Lynn's is providing a birthday card for each and a former student, 10 years old, provided 4 bags when he learned of the project. 25 bags have gone to 3 local food pantries and another 25 will go out during May. Our intent is to continue this as a year-round effort.

Thank you to Karen McLaughlin, Bob Reid, Jim Demus, Cat Greenstreet, Karen Johnsen, Linda Fauci, Lee Lomangino... can we inspire anyone else?
